HURST GREEN NEWS

Friday 19th May

MAPLE CLASS ARE HOLDING A CAKE SALE NEXT WEDNESDAY - ALL DONATIONS GRATEFULLY RECEIVED. PLEASE COME AND BUY AND EAT CAKE ON WEDNESDAY AFTER SCHOOL. MAPLE MUMS – IF YOU CAN SPARE AN HOUR TO HELP, PLEASE SPEAK TO MRS OTTOWAY. THANK YOU.

Parents
Evening

It is parents evening on Monday and Wednesday – appointment sheets will remain in the office until the end of today, so please make your appointment at pick up time if you would like to see the teacher.

Collective Worship

In the fifth and final week of learning about trust (which is one of our Christian values), we will be talking about trusting the future to God and believing that he has a bigger plan for us than we have for ourselves.

Holiday Club – sign up!

Mr and Mrs Blackaby will be holding a holiday club at the Village Hall on Wednesday the 31st May from 10-12. It is just £1 for the two hour session, which includes craft and refreshments. Parents are welcome to stay. Please come in to the office and sign up if your children would like to go along.

Oak Class – Food Detectives

On Tuesday afternoon Oak Class had a visit from the Food Detectives who came to talk to the children about healthy food. They discussed what is in our food and how we can reduce the amount of sugar we consume by making good choices. They discussed packed lunches and how thinking about and making changes to our meals can have major health benefits.

Healthy Eating Parent Workshop – 14th June at 9am

As you know, we encourage healthy eating at school and are trying to teach the children to make positive choices which will condition them for life. On Wednesday 14th June we are holding a parent workshop on healthy lunchboxes and sugar swaps. This will be in the hall at 9am and we would like parents to come along and pick up a few tips.

Hurst Green Village Fete – Saturday 3rd June – Hat Competition

The HGSA are doing teas, coffees and cake (any donations gratefully received). There will be a Mad Hat competition – bring your entry to the Mad Hatter's Tea Tent – judging 2.30pm.

Nursery: We have been talking about how to look after our teeth and what healthy foods to eat. What makes our teeth happy and what makes them sad?

Willow: We have been practising addition in maths and in English we have written questions to ask the Lonely Beast.

Head Teacher's Award Reception: Freya for writing some lovely questions to ask the Beast.

Head Teacher's Award Year 1: Lois for working really hard on her questions for the Beast.

Silver Birch: This week the Year 2 children have been working hard to complete their SAT's – only one more to go! In English we have started our new book about the Savannah. In Maths we have been adding and subtracting using a number line.

Head Teacher's Award Year 2: Finley for showing resilience when completing the SAT's.

Maple: This week we recapped written methods for addition and subtraction in Maths. In English we wrote our stories and in Topic we did our river presentations.

Head Teacher's Award Year 3: Tyler E for writing a lovely story in English and working extremely hard on his presentation.

Head Teacher's Award Year 4: Norma-Jean for writing a lovely story in English, thinking carefully about her vocabulary choices.

Oak: We have been writing diary entries in role as someone in an air raid during The Blitz. Year 6 have been scaling in Maths.

Head Teacher's Award Year 5: Monty T for his improved effort in writing.

Head Teacher's Award Year 6: Annabel for an outstanding diary entry.
