HURST GREEN NEWS Friday 7th February 2020

Hurst Green Website

All newsletters past and present are on our website under 'News'. Please use this as your first point of reference for dates and details. Term dates are on the front page under the 'Parent's Links' heading.

Next Friday it is a non-uniform day for £1 to go in to the HGSA pot AND Chestnut Class are holding a cake sale to raise funds for extra resources in their class. Slips are coming out to the children in Chestnut - we will remind you to send in some pennies for cake next Friday!

We raised £380 at the Key Stage 2 disco last Friday – a big thank you to the parents that gave us a hand to do tattoos, sell sweets etc.

Key Stage 1 tables

We have new tables in Key Stage 1. If you know of anyone who would like some tables and chairs, please let them know and they can come and pick them up from us.

Uniform

The children look very smart this week – we have had comments from Governors about how well turned out they are which is good, I am pleased to see this. Miss Flack

Collective Worship – 'Trusting God when life is stormy'.

Prayer: Whether our lives are calm and peaceful or stormy and scary, help us to know your presence and peace.

Amen

Time to Dance – NEXT Thursday.

Children who are performing next Thursday will have lunch before leaving for the White Rock. The girls would like to have curly hair, so please plait it the night before and leave it in. Girls and boys need to wear black tracksuit bottoms, leggings or shorts - we have got tops for them. Please let the office know if you object to them having make up applied before the performance.

Miss Flack, Mrs Skinner and Miss Golding will be accompanying them to Hastings on the coach and will be taking them out for tea between rehearsals and the show. Hopefully you all have your tickets – we are excited!!!!

Diary Dates:

Friday 14th February – Non-uniform day for all for £1
