Don't Drop Litter! Letter Writing

Morris didn't realise that the litter he was bringing to the forest was damaging it so much. He would like to warn the humans about the damage they are causing.

Imagine you are Morris. Write a letter to the humans explaining what they have done wrong and how they can put it right.

A large, hand-drawn scroll with horizontal lines for writing. The scroll is unrolled, showing a series of horizontal lines across its length. The ends of the scroll are rolled up into circular shapes.

You should include:

- why you are writing to them;
- what the humans did and why it was wrong;
- what will happen if they don't stop throwing litter;
- how they can put it right;
- how you feel about humans.
